

Coffee Conversations and Networking

10:30 - 11:00
Skill Building Workshop

Conversations are key! Coffee conversations offer informal yet structured networking opportunities for job seekers to connect with prospecting employers in a relaxed setting. Over coffee, participants engage in meaningful discussions about career goals, industry trends, and potential job opportunities. This setting encourages open dialogue, allowing job seekers to showcase their skills and personality, while employers can gain insights into candidates in a more casual, yet professional, environment. These conversations foster relationship-building and provide valuable networking connections that could lead to future career opportunities.
