Search for companies, participants and licensing opportunities of interest and send requests for one-to-one meetings.

3. Meet

Accept or decline requests from others. Your meeting schedule will be based on your accepted requests and mutual availability.

What previous attendees say:

"We had the most amazing conversation at the opening keynote MNC pharma panel at ChinaBio™ Partnering Forum. There is no other forum where you will get 7 global or regional heads of business development on the same stage to discuss and compare their companies' performance in China and the levels of innovation in China and comparison to their home markets."
