

Welcome to Center Stage, the Informa Connect Speaker reward program for content creators on Streamly (the “Programme”). Center Stage and the Programme are organised by Informa Connect Limited with company number 01835199, whose registered address is 5 Howick Place, London, SW1P 1WG United Kingdom (“Informa,” “we,” or “us”).

When we refer to “you” or “your” we mean you, the person accessing these terms and conditions (the “Terms”).

These Terms govern your participation in the Programme and by participating in the Programme and ticking the box on the registration page, you agree to be bound by these Terms.

For a high-level summary of how to join the Programme, how to earn points, available rewards and how to redeem the rewards, please visit <https://informaconnect.com/center-stage/how-rewards/>

1. ELIGIBILITY

To participate in the Programme, you must be a content creator, including but not limited to speakers or digital content providers, whose content is used in live events and/or hosted on Informa’s Streamly platform. By enrolling and participating in the Programme, you confirm that you meet these eligibility requirements.

2. JOINING THE PROGRAMME

If you meet the eligibility criteria above, you can join the Programme by filling out a registration form on <https://informaconnect.com/center-stage/> (“Website”). Only one account is allowed per individual. If you join the Programme, you agree to provide and maintain true, accurate, current and complete information about yourself as prompted by the registration form.

3. EARNING POINTS

As a member of the Programme, you will earn points for the number of views your content receives on the Streamly platform and by participating in our Events. In addition to points for digital content, you will also be able to earn points for each time you present or speak at one of Informa’s event, either in person or virtually. Details of available points will be displayed on the Website and may be updated from time to time.

When you are booked as a speaker or your content is viewed by subscribers to Streamly, your points will be automatically accredited to your account. Your points balance will be emailed to you on a monthly basis.

From time to time, we, in our sole discretion, may change, discontinue, or add interactions where you can earn points and change the number of points earned, with or without prior notification to you.

Speakers who have provided content in the past to Informa can start earning points from the day they have been registered to the Programme, however no prior speaking engagements will be eligible for points. New members will start earning points from the date they register for the Programme, and content is added to the Streamly platform.

4. EXPIRATION OF POINTS

Programme points will remain valid for 24 months and rewards must be redeemed within this time. Points cannot be transferred between members but you can nominate a colleague in your organization to benefit from one of the rewards achieved in your tier. Points have no cash value and cannot be exchanged for cash.

5. PROGRAMME TIERS

The Programme has three separate tiers. You can move up through the different tiers by earning points. Action is the entry-level tier for members with 0–1500 points. Applause is the second tier for members with 1501–3000 points. Standing Ovation is the third tier for members with 3001 or more points.

You can climb to the higher tiers by accumulating the number of points mentioned above within 24 months of the end of the month of registration (the “Membership Period”).

You must meet the requalification requirements at the end of your membership year in order to remain at your current tier. If not, you will be downgraded to the tier below.

6. TIER REQUALIFICATION

If you are in the Applause or Standing Ovation tier and you do not earn enough points during the current requalification period, you will be downgraded to the next tier down, regardless of the number of points you have accumulated by this date.

The requalification period starts on the date you reached a new tier and ends 24 months later, always at the end of the month. The number of points you need in order to requalify for your current tier is equal to the minimum point balance needed to enter that tier.

Points earned after your last tier entry will count towards requalification points. The new requalification period will start on the exact date of that tier upgrade and end 24 months later at the end of the month. After a tier upgrade, your requalification points will be set to 0.

If you do not earn enough points for your tier during the requalification period, you will be downgraded. The downgrade will take place after the last day of the requalification period, which is always at the end of the month.

7. REWARDS

Entry and progress through each of the above-mentioned tiers will unlock a set of new rewards for members as set out here <https://informaconnect.com/center-stage/how-rewards/>.

You will have access to the rewards in your current tier but not the tiers below or above them.

Certain rewards will be conditional upon you agreeing to separate terms and conditions applicable to that reward which will be made available to you when redeeming that reward, including but not limited to attendance at our events will be subject to our delegate terms and conditions.
