You are a speaker or a panelist at an Informa Connect event or have been approached to create specific digital content for Informa's Streamly platform. We would like to capture the session(s) in which you are participating, or the presentation you are making (including reproducing your slide deck as a sequence of images), or record your professional opinions in an interview, in audio and video format (the "Recording(s)"). To that end, we want to ensure that both you and Informa Connect have the necessary rights and protections in place. At the end of this process, a copyright release will have been generated, covering the Recording(s).
