About this programme

The Postgraduate Diploma/Masters in European Union Law is a distance learning programme covering a wide range of important EU Law topics, such as free movement of goods and people, social policy, external relations and judicial review. You will gain an in-depth and up-to-date knowledge of the most important theoretical and practical aspects of EU law, with a particular emphasis on the Treaties of the European Union.

Now in its 28th successful year this programme has been attended by students drawn from the UK and other parts of the European Union, the European Economic Area, Central and Eastern Europe, the Far East and the USA. Completing this rigorous programme will give you an edge in a competitive job market.

Students can progress to the MA if the PG Dip is passed at Merit level.
