2022 CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM

CANADIAN REITs:
WHAT WILL BE THE PATH FORWARD?

THE EVENT

How Will Canadian REITs Perform in a Market with Unpredictable Interest Rates, Inflation and Employment?

For two years, COVID-19 has had an unforeseen impact that has varied throughout all real estate property classes and the markets across Canada. As we now enter into market conditions that include higher than expected inflation and higher interest rates, the 18th annual RealREIT conference will focus on what potentially the future will be for Canadian securitized real estate and what is likely the path forward.

The current state and how the REIT asset class has performed over several years will be examined.

Over 70 speakers will discuss a wide range of topical issues in 20 sessions and presentations. Join REIT and REOC executives for insightful discussions along with private and institutional investors, equity analysts, portfolio and investment managers, brokers, lenders, appraisers, lawyers and other intermediaries.

They will examine office, retail, industrial and multi-residential market activity from the perspective of investment, development, financing and leasing.

Their comments will include predictions on the outlook for REITs in 2023 and beyond.

RealREIT is organized by the Real Property Association of Canada and Informa Canada (the producers of the Real Estate Forums) in collaboration with RBC Capital Markets Real Estate Group, the principal sponsor of the event.

We hope you will take advantage of this high value and very informative program particularly given the numerous questions that all need insightful answers.
