Amplify your reach

1-to-1 meetings

Secure meetings with the right people for your goals. We'll arrange for you to connect with key players that you're looking to meet.

VIP networking

Be the guest of honor at your own dedicated VIP match-making event, whether through breakfast, lunch, or drinks. Work with our team to curate your exclusive attendee list.

Seat drop

A direct way to place branded materials in front of attendees, increasing visibility without relying on digital channels.

Lanyards

Make sure our clients can't miss you. Gain recognition as a lanyard or badge sponsor with your company logo. Receive high-level visibility.

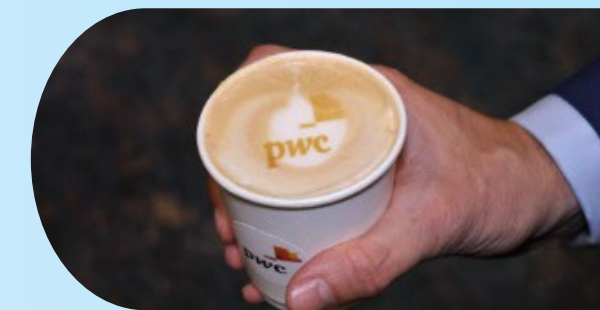

WiFi & charging stations

Be the first brand attendees see when they connect to the event's WiFi network or keep them powered up when they need to recharge.

Coffee cups & napkins

Put your brand in every hand during high-traffic networking breaks and lunches.

Amplify your reach

Targeted email outreach

Get your brand in front of IMN's audience before and after the event. We'll work with you directly to design an email campaign to deliver on your goals (be it securing on-site meetings, generating brand awareness, drive traffic to your booth, and more!).

Digital sponsorship

Establish powerful thought leadership and elevate your brand through IMN's digital sponsorships, including webinars, video interviews, newsletter features, blog content, targeted email campaigns, and more.

Testimonials

IMN brought together some of the most relevant investors, operators, and lenders in digital infrastructure. A must-attend for anyone shaping the next phase of the industry.

Usman Arshad

Vice President, Global Finance, HostDime Global Corp

Sponsoring was literally the best thing we have ever done.

Jeff Cline

Managing Partner, SFRhub Marketplace

The Data Centres Private Equity 2025 event was well attended from vendors to financiers, had very focused sessions in very condensed one-day event format and I will definitely come to the next one.

Alexander Bebov

Director, BAC

Attending IMN conference series allows businesses to network, stay updated with the latest trends and showcase your transformative solutions.

David Maland,

Director of Business Development, Noteflow Inc.
