Unauthorized Suppliers

Be aware of unauthorized suppliers claiming to be with the show who approach exhibitors attempting to sell products or services they may not be able to deliver. Be on the lookout for the following warning signs:

- Contact emails are not personalized and may not refer to the actual show;
- Contact emails do not have a signature with a phone number to contact;
- Companies will request full payment in advance of providing the service.

We are currently aware of the following list of companies which have tried to solicit the show's exhibitors. None of these companies are affiliated with the show and do not have authorization to represent the show:
