What is SuperReturn Operating Partners North America?

SuperReturn Operating Partners North America is the leading private equity event dedicated to value creation.

Bringing together operating partners from private capital firms, portfolio companies and more to share strategies, practices and insights on driving operational excellence and growth.

The event offers unparalleled networking opportunities and cutting-edge content focused on operational improvements, talent management, digital transformation, growth initiatives and shape future operating models.

It's where the industry's most influential voices come together to shape the future of portfolio performance.

Who will be there?

SuperReturn Operating Partners North America brings together an exclusive community of senior professionals from across the private equity industry. You'll meet operating partners who are at the forefront of driving portfolio company performance and value creation.

The event attracts leading private equity firms, from large buyout houses to mid-market and growth equity investors, alongside portfolio company executives who play a critical role in executing transformation initiatives. In addition, experts in areas such as talent management, digital transformation, and growth will be present to share insights and innovative solutions.

Advisors and service providers who specialize in supporting operational improvements will also join the conversation, making this an amazing opportunity to connect with senior industry leaders who are at the forefront of driving transformational change.
